COSTILLA

Behind Costilla's simple yet sophisticated appearance lies high-level innovation. Even though it resembles a tufted discontinuous stria segment, Costilla's structure is woven vinyl fabric, with our unrivaled expertise and technological processes. As a result, Costilla's nine colorways radiate the fresh feeling of traditional stria design, with shiny breezy pastels and vibrant tones that could have been picked from a marigold or lavender field. Mossy and grassy greens sit alongside bluer tones: the aquamarine of a pristine lake and the subdued shades of a mountainous landscape in the distance.
