Companies or individuals that import, manufacture, use, or place substances, mixtures, or articles on the market must comply with the REACH regulation. That means if you are based in the European Economic Area (EEA) (including Northern Ireland) or Great Britain (GB), all physical goods must be compliant with the regulation unless an exemption applies.

RoHS stands for Restriction of Hazardous Substances and impacts the electronics industry and many electrical products. The original RoHS, also known as Directive 2002/95/EC, originated in the European Union in 2002 and restricted the use of six hazardous materials in electrical and electronic products.

Proposition 65 is the Safe Drinking Water and Toxic Enforcement Act of 1986. Legislation requires businesses and manufacturers to provide Californians warning labels on products that contain chemicals known to cause cancer, congenital disabilities, or other reproductive harm at levels above California's "safe harbor" guidelines.

The colors of this catalog are obtained with a printing process and may therefore vary from the original shades. Consequently, they must be considered purely indicative.
